General Major Cases Due In Court Term Opening Monday

Several major criminal cases anticipated as the Fall term of Circuit Court convened Monday.

Included are the Jordan River murder case against Howard Boyter, the four-year-old Houston Franklin murder case, the stabbing case against Gerald Lewis and the shooting case against James Hammond Lewis allegedly stabbed Barber Tony Piazza.

Howard Boyter has been held in County jail since the murder of Novak on Jordan River. Boyter was arrested the same day Novak was killed. The dead man had been staying with the accused in his Jordan River house.

An eye-witness said that he saw Boyter strike Novak with a board. Boyter denies having anything to do with the death of the New Orleans man.

Houston Franklin was arrested almost four years ago on a murder charge. He has been out of jail on a $10,000 bond since that time.

Gerald Lewis was captured after a whirl through the city. Tony Piazza identified him as the man who stabbed him after robbing his home. Lewis has been in jail since the stabbing.

Hammond was arrested and charged with shooting a railroad worker during an argument in a card game. The man was not fatally wounded.

It was reported through the Clerk of Court's office that Mrs. William Dolan had not filed suit against the insurance firm which had insured her husband's life.

This case had aroused the interest of many people along the Gulf and New Orleans. Mrs. Dolan had said she would sue the company for its failure to pay the claim. A spokesman for the insurance said the claim cannot be paid because she has no death certificate bearing her husband's name.

Dolan disappeared in February. Mrs. Dolan identified in New Orleans as that of her husband. But later California police said they arrested a man whose fingerprints were the same as Dolan's.

The grand jury will meet Monday morning and will be in session for three days or so.

Sixty-two men have been subpoenaed for jury work for the fall term. Judge Leslie Grant will preside over the court.

Young Greg Curet Wins Tot's Title

A husky 25 pound blue eyed charmer named Gregory Curet was winner in the bay contest held at the Kilt Youth Center Carnival recently.

The 11-month old baby is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Curet. At one penny a vote, he now has four other contestants. They were Jeffrey Lawson, Verna Maxine Haas, Donald Lacoste and Jo Ann Curet.

The contest was open to children up to two years of age. The baby is the grandson of Mrs. W. M. Glass and Mr. C. M. Curet.

HOSPITAL SITE WILL BE SELECTED IN TWO WEEKS

A definite site for the hospital being planned in Hancock County will be chosen in two weeks. Foster L. Fowler, director of the Mississippi State Commission for Hospital Care, will arrive in Bay St. Louis to approve a lot.

Two sites are now being considered. At the Board of Supervisors meeting Tuesday a decision could not be reached as to which they wanted. The Board was split on two locations.

One is the Bob Genin property on Carroll Avenue and the other is the land belonging to Ed Brignac on Dunbar Ave.

The prices range from $15,000 to $18,000 for the land.

Johnson Shaw, president of the Board of Supervisors, said, "I would like to see the hospital in close enough to town where it would not be an inconvenience to the people who have sick relatives or friends in the hospital. All the people do not have automobiles and I think the building should be near to drugstores, restaurants and other places of business."

Joe Jones, Supervisor Beat 1, supported a motion to buy the Brignac land. He said, "The lot is very large. In fact it would be large enough to house the hospital and a poor house in the back. It has a good location and would be a very quiet place."

Doctor C. M. Shipp, county health officer, said, "The site has to be large enough to house the building that is planned. And it must be approved by the State."

Gordon Romanoff, representing the American Legion at the meeting, told of another lot the Legion had been offered free.

Nearly 300 Kids Join In Rodeo

The Second Annual "Junior Fishing Rodeo" sponsored by the Clement R. Boncompagni Post 139 of the American Legion, brought out 231 youngsters competing for the awards. An estimated 50 additional were present for the event. Price said.

The valuable red and reel sets were won by Carl Gustafson, Jeanine Rutherford and Paule Sterneckor. The sets consisted of Pileuger Reels and Lines and True Temper Rods which were donated direct by the manufacturers.

Nineteen Cash prizes were awarded to the winners as follows: according to class, length, cash prizes, winners:

Channel Mullet, 11 inches, $1.25, Carl Gustafson; Oyster Fish, 8 inches, $1.00, Woodie Alston; Lady Fish, 11 1/2 inches, $1.25, James Carver; White Trout, 11 1/2 inches, $4.25, Larry Werner; Mackerel, 5 inches, $1.25, Richard Sterneckor, Flounder, 13 1/2 inches, $5.00, Wayne Laddner; Drum, 12 1/2 inches, $2.25, Ronnie Pilet, Croaker, 9 inches, $2.75, James Mayfield; Speckled Trout, 12 1/2 inches, $4.25, Larry Werner; Catfish, 12 inches, $1.20, Larry Werner; Spade Fish, 4 1/2 inches, $4.70, Richard Sterneckor; Pin Fish, 7 1/2 inches, $7.50, Charlie Schiltz; Jack Fish, 7 1/2 inches, $2.00, August Rauxet, Jr.; Sardine 7 inches, Terry Laddner; Eel, 21 inches, $2.25, Doris Estapa; Oyster Fish, 7 1/2 inches, 75c, Dennis Permus; Red Fish, 13 inches, $1.50, James Mayfield; Bushwacker, 7 inches, 75c; Paula Sterneckor; Pensacola Croaker, 5 1/2 inches, $2.00, Richard Indonina.

Mr. Cuevas was the husband of Mrs. Lina Kelly Cuevas of Parklawn and the son of the late Mary Hammer and Raphael Cuevas.

PRAX PUTS CLAMPS ON STOCK SHOW AND FAIR

Over a 30-day period following outbreak and vaccination. There has been no report of anthrax in Hancock for more than two weeks.

Plans had been underway to have the fair and livestock show the first week in October.

"Unless we can have the livestock show, it would be pointless to try to go on with plans for the fair," Simmons said.

Present at the meeting where the decision was made were members of the board of Supervisors, representatives of the county agent's office and livestock association members, interested farmers and breeders.

The fair plans will be carried over until next year, when it is hoped they may result in the first such event for the county.

Polio Fund Tops Yen For Movies

A group of five young summer visitors, who made up the club called the Waveland Musketeers an organization devoted to crabbing, attending movies and purchasing snowballs, this week presented its entire treasury to the March of Dimes.

The quintet - Kearny Robert, Martha Eschman, Beverly Robert, Eddie Carrere III and Suzanne Carrere - brought one dollar and 56 cents to the office of the Echo and requested that the funds be turned over to the polio fund.

The members pay seven cents dues per meeting.

President Robert Kearny, announced that the club was "closing the season," and wished to give all its money to the worthy cause.

The boys and girls will return to New Orleans with their parents this week. After another nine months of school they plan to return to Waveland and again become Musketeers.

The members, by their own explanation, are plain eleven, ten, and nine, nine going on ten and so on down to the seventh year.

"You can see we are a very disorganized club," said Kearny. And they happily disbanded.

Anniversary For Pass Couple

Mrs. and Mrs. A. G. Blacklock their fiftieth wedding anniversary of Pass Christian celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary this week.

The new one half of one per cent sales tax to raise money for Bay St. Louis will go into effect on October 1st as the result of the near ten to one vote in favor of it given by local citizens last week.

In an announcement from City Hall Commissioner Cyril Glover said:

"We are very happy that the vote of confidence the people gave us. The vote was almost ten to one in favor of the measure."

We are especially glad most of the people thought our carefully explained improvements planned are really necessary."

The vote in the election was 539 in favor of the increased tax and 69 against. Broken down, the North box voted 341 in favor and 36 against it. The South box voted 198 for and 33 against the increase.

Following notification of state authorities, the tax will be added to the two per cent sales tax now levied by the state. It is expected that upon return of the addition to Bay St. Louis, the city's revenue will be upped about $25,000 each year.

City officials said the number of voters voting in this election represented about 75 per cent of those qualified. There are about 1500 voters on the books and perhaps two or three hundred who have failed to register.

Officials are taking steps now to remind these voters that they should register and qualify themselves to vote in future elections.

This election, officials said, will result in improvements to the city's streets, an increase in city employees salaries (not those of elected officials, however), aiding in construction and maintenance of a hospital, a new cemetery, improved drainage, supporting the city-county library and the city youth center and employing a youth counselor.

Sun Oil's Well Reaches 3100 Feet

Kiln High Launches 1954 Football Season Here Friday Against School For

FIELDS TEAMS FOR FIRST TIME IN DOZEN YEARS

Kiln High School opens the local football season at St. Stanislaus Stadium Friday night against the Mississippi School for the Deaf.

Kiln will be working from a conventional T-formation and the Notre Dame box. Coach L.C. Ladner and the new assistant coach, C.J. Stonocypher, have been stressing passing to the team.

This game will mark the beginning of a new era in Kiln athletics. This will be the first football team it has fielded in 12 years.

Coach Ladner said, "My boys are looking pretty good. I can't point out any individual player who is a standout until after I see them in the first game. Larry Ladner is doing the quarterbacking and the passing. Mitchell will do all of the kicking. I have one team of reserves. We are pretty strong on the bench."

The new addition to the coaching staff, Stonocypher, came from Poplarville.

The invading team from Jackson had compiled a notable record over the past four years. It has been the champions of its district during this period.

The Kiln team will average 175 pounds on the line and 160 pounds in the backfield.

HELPFUL HINT - Never forget that fish like variety in their foods as much as humans, so be sure your tackle box has a good selection of plugs, spoons, spinners and flies - and use them all if the going is slow. Yes, and even the angling purist would do well to take along a few minnows, worms or other natural foods - just in case.

The Junior Fishing Rodeo was a grand success with nearly 300 kids taking part with only one minor accident, catfish fin. Plenty kids - plenty fishing. Good going Legion!

Good to know that Eddie Heath is back from the hospital. Doing fine. See him fishing again soon.

Teddy Stechmann expects to start his vacation soon. Look out fish!

Curtis, A. G., and Forest Favre were out after the fish over the weekend. Mulletts were their specialty.

STANISLAUS HOLDS PRE-SEASON SCRIMMAGE WITH CATHOLIC HI

St. Stanislaus displayed a good defense and a pretty sharp offense Sunday when it scrimmaged Catholic High of Donaldsonville, La.

Coach Ferley Day said, "The defense looked a little ahead of the offense. The backs didn't show to much speed. This week we are working on a combination that will give us more speed. The passing looked fair Sunday. It needs a little sharpening."

Woodie Santa Cruz, the center of last year who was converted into a fullback this year, led the Stanislaus aggregation on the offensive side. He got off for one long run and his short plunges were very effective.

Jimmy Grace and Billy Rhodes showed the most ability in broken field running. Grace got a Local fishing camps will have a little rest now that Labor Day has passed. However, the fishing is good hereabouts all the time.

Sam Whitfield, Dick Stellan and others were fishing up Port Royal Saturday. What they caught is another story. They had a good time at Sam's camp.

The Toy Spences had the whole family at the camp on Bayou Cho over the week end. They had some fishing and had a good time.

Reports from the Lehighites are that they are enjoying some fishing in Tennessee and Gaspe Peninsula before going on to Quebec. Lots of luck fishermen!

Some Spanish Mackerel were caught along the R. R. bridge over the weekend. One catch amounted to 11; another 7. Live shiners who the bait bait used. Other fish were caught in large numbers.

The Labor Day weekend provided a large number of golfers at the Pass Christian Isles Golf Course. Visitors were high in their praise of the course.

Tom Yearger pictured above is a very busy man during and after the fishing season. He lives in a houseboat that is tied up in Bogue Homa Bayou. Tom keeps skiffs, takes people fishing, takes care of a couple of private fishing camps, rents boats and does other odd jobs that are included in a fisherman's life. Uncle Tom, as he is known to his friends is a fine fisherman himself and teaches many of his customers some of the tricks of the

More Lights For Stanislaus Stadium Soon

Extra lights on the Stanislaus football field will become a fact soon. The much needed fixtures will be added to the present ones by the Stanislaus Club of the school.

At a special meeting held Tuesday night, Ed Brignac, president of Stanislaus Electric, offered to get the fixtures at cost and also said he would send a team over to the field to raise the fixtures into place on the poles.

Hadley Shattuck, manager of the R. E. A. promised to do all that was needed to help the project. Ed Brignac, a member of the organization, is contacting the Mississippi Power Company to secure its services in putting the poles in the ground.

Walter Gex will get in touch with Mr. Crosby of Poyune to see about buying the poles. The club is prepared to pay for them.

Work will begin on the lights by the end of this week. The first home game for Stanislaus is on Sept. 24. The team will play three home night games.

Troop 217 Spends Three Days At Fenton

Troop 217 of the Boy Scouts had its annual camping trip to Fenton, last week. The troop started on the trip Sunday and returned home Wednesday evening.

Directors of the outing were Ben Favre, Sr., T. F. Monti, Jake Morreale, Arvin Genn and Foster Leonard, who is the spiritual director of the group.

The boys enjoyed swimming, fishing, hiking and according to the scout masters, "mostly eating."

Tuesday night the scouts were guests of Pete Potter at his home on Rotten Bayou. They had a swimming party in his pool and had a water roast.

Knot tying and swimming contests were held over the three day period. The scout masters stayed with the youngsters during all the time of the trip.

Sportsweek

By GREGORY FAVRE

(This is the second of a series giving a preview of the local football teams.)

Bay High looks forward to the opening of the season with good running in the backfield, weak tackling on the line, and overall fair blocking.

The team will work from a Split T formation. Handling the offense at quarterback is Donald Cole. This is his first year at this position. He is getting better adapted to the system and his handling of the ball has been smooth. He is a fair faker, a better than average passer, and, on the optional plays in the Split T, he is a swift broken field runner.

Behind Cole at this spot is Donald Landers. Landers is ordinarily a halfback. He is fast, a good passer and at this point will do the kicking for the team.

At halfback this year there are Tommy Holden and Henry Monti alternating with Landers. Holden is a big, fast boy with a lot of power. He has one year of experience.

Monti is probably the most consistent runner in the backfield. He has good speed, plenty of power and is fairly shifty in the open field. He is a young boy and lettered last year as a freshman.

Landers at halfback is the best broken field runner on the team. Filling in the depth at halfback is T. T. Robin, Norvin Shiyov and Anderson. These boys are all young and this is their first year to play varsity football.

At fullback Hugo Favre represents the power of the team. He is fast and very hard to stop. He is also an above the average blocker.

Behind him is a new boy, J. L. Gonzales, who shows a lot of promise and with a little experience should shape up into a good replacement.

Ends are most solid positions on the team. Kent Sellier and Clayton Adams are the returning lettermen playing on the ends this year. Sellier is a reconverted tackle. This boy is an exceptional down field blocker for a high school ball player.

He hits hard in defense. He pass receiver.

Adams is a tackle. He is a boy but is for his size passing attack his catching.

Mary Jane
Green Is Wed Here

The wedding of Miss Mary Jane Green, daughter of Mrs. John A. Green and the late Mr. Green, to Ralph James Christman, Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. Christman of New Orleans took place here Saturday at Our Lady of the Gulf Church.

Father Hugh Taylor officiated. The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Waldo C. Otis of Bay St. Louis, was gown in white satin and lace. The dress was princess style and had a low round neckline, short sleeves and a full skirt with a chapel length train. Her fingertip veil of illusion was held by a crown of illusion embroidered in pearls and brilliants. She carried a bouquet of butterfly orchids and stephanotis.

Attending the bride were Mrs. Marion J. Wolfe, Jr., matron of honor; Mrs. Gary F. LeGros, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Jan Moise of Houston, Texas, and Miss Isabel Swoop Nott, bridesmaids.

Flower girls were the Misses Jeanne Marie Green, sister of the bride and Mary Elaine Green, a cousin.

The attendants were dressed in French blue organza, starched, and designed with an off the shoulder neckline. Their skirts were of ballerina length and they carried basket-shaped bouquets of deep purple asters. They wore headpieces of asters and purple velvet ribbon.

Dr. James Christman was his son's best man. Groomsmen were Gary F. LeGros, Bruce Burglass, Ensign William Bernard, USN, Richard L. Hadden and G. Arthur Seaver, Jr.

For the reception which followed at the Green home, Mrs. Green received in a pale blue linen dress. She wore a white beaver hat banded in blue and a corsage of white orchids.

The mother of the groom wore a beige cotton lace dress adorned with a corsage of green orchids. Her hat was a spanish tile colored felt creation.

Also receiving was the groom's maternal grandmother, Mrs. William Preston Hickman of Natchitoches. She wore a navy blue sheer dress, navy accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

For her wedding trip to a resort hotel in Alabama, the bride chose a slate blue silk cotton suit trimmed in navy blue velvet. Her accessories were navy and she wore a corsage of white butterfly orchids and lilies of the valley.

The couple will be at home at an apartment at 2301 Napoleon Avenue in New Orleans.

Mrs. Christman is a graduate of St. Joseph Academy and Dominican College in New Orleans. The groom attended Newman School in New Orleans and was graduated from Tulane.

Buyers' Mart

The Buyers Mart is staying home this week. In fact, we are staying at home getting ready for Christmas.

Who now has in supply samples of Christmas stationery and Christmas folders which can be used by businesses and organizations and individual senders such as club leader and office holders.

These beautiful large card folders and holiday letterheads start in price at a little over ten dollars for 200 sheets of the stationery and rise in price depending on how much you wish to say in the way of a Christmas greeting. Envelopes start at about $2.50 for 200.

Folders, which are large Christmas cards on the front cover and contain an inside blank space for a printed message, start at about dollars for 200 with a printed message inside.

Do you head a charitable organization? Do you own or run a business? Do you want to thank your club members for their aid or remind them of the holiday events you are sponsoring? Do you have a delivery route or sales route? Or do you sell or make an article in your home and would like to have people remember you at Christmas?

The Echo extends a cordial invitation to all to come in and look at the selection of stationery and folders and make up a Christmas or holiday sales greeting.

The weather is still warm and the holidays seem far away, but in the weeks ahead, the Echo must work fast to complete these orders in time for delivery in early December. It isn't too early to make your plans for Christmas mail.

Now for this popular matter of sending Christmas cards with the family's or the children's pictures on them.

The Echo printing department plans to specialize in this item this season.

If you have a picture you wish to put on your Christmas cards this year, come in and let us give you an estimate on the cards and the printing. It will cost only a few pennies more than the much less personal cards you pick up on the card counters.

TO THE QUALIFIED ELECTORS OR THE EIGHTH CHANCERY COURT DISTRICT:

On the day following the election on August 24th, I gave a brief statement through the Gulfport Daily Herald, expressing my warm appreciation of the loyal, generous support of my host of friends throughout the entire district.

After waiting two days for the final official election returns, it was too late to procure publication of same in all the weekly press last week.

I am, therefore, now availing myself of the facilities of the press to again emphasize my deep and genuine sense of gratitude to every voter and non-voter who in anywise contributed to my re-election for this, the seventh, term as Chancellor of the Eighth District, by a majority of more than two to one in each of the three counties.

I did practically no campaigning, relying mainly upon the columns of the press and a few radio talks to a very small audience to the people and upon the voluntary and valuable support of the members of the district court officials, and many others, to whom I make grateful acknowledgment here of their unselfish, effective services as they played a major role in behalf of my re-election. For all of which I am sincerely grateful, and I here and now pledge to the entire public a continuation of my best services as your Chancellor.

Sincerely yours,
D. M. Russell, Jr.

How Can I?

Q. How can I prevent excessive perspiration of the hands?
A. Try bathing them with strong alum water, or alcohol. Or use a lotion of two ounces of cologne and one-quarter ounce tincture of belladonna; rub in till moisture is absorbed, then dust withorris root or talcum powder.

Q. How can I make a substitute for soap?
A. It is claimed that two or three potatoes grated into a pan of water will give better results than soap when washing ribbons or delicate woolen goods.

Q. How can I remove yellow spots from white enamel?
A. A flannel cloth dipped in garden mold will remove these yellow spots from white enameled surfaces.

Q. How can I make a tooth powder?
A. By mixing thoroughly five ounces of areca-nut charcoal, two ounces of cuttle-fish bone, one ounce of areca-nuts, raw and powdered. Strain through a fine sieve.

Q. How can I prevent tearing corners of sheets when drying them?
A. This is caused by hanging on the line when the wind is high and will not happen if the sheets are fastened by all four corners.

Q. How can I keep pastry from shrinking?
A. Pastry will usually shrink from the pan if too much shortening is used.

Q. How can I determine when the jelling point has been reached in making jelly?
A. Put a little of the jelly on a cold plate and draw a path through it with the point of a spoon. If the path stays and the jelly does not run together, the jelling point has been reached.

Q. How can I clean felt hats?
A. Add enough cleaning fluid to a teaspoon of flour to make a paste. Rub this paste on with a brush, and allow it to dry. Then brush with a stiff brush.

Q. How can I remove mildew?
A. Mildew can be removed with sour milk, then placing the article in the sun.

Q. How can I keep the grains of rice separated when cooking?
A. Add a little lemon to the water in which the rice is boiled. It will not only whiten the rice, but will help to keep the grains separated.

Q. How can I kill a tree?
A. Probably the best way to kill a tree is to girdle it with a deep belt around the trunk.

PASTURES

Early September is the time to make the first plantings of oats, or wheat for early winter grazing. For quicker germination and growth, first plantings should be made on fallowed land.

For this early planted grazing Extension agronomists recommend one-half acre per animal. Use 120 pounds of oats per acre and put down phosphate, potash and nitrogen fertilizers at planting time. This half acre per animal will furnish plenty of grazing until later plantings are ready.

The first plantings of cereals should be made a little deeper than you usually plant. This is to help get the seed down to where moisture is available. Cultivate all early fall plantings. If you have time, run the cultipacker twice.

CATTLE LICE

You may think that your cattle are free from lice. Possibly they are right now while we are still having hot weather. However, lice tend to lie practically dormant and cause little if any damage during hot weather. They build up and cause plenty of damage as soon as the weather gets cool.

Make your plans to treat your stock for cattle lice before cold weather sets in. Anytime in the fall on a warm day is a good time to spray for lice control. It will take two or three gallons of diluted spray material to do the job, which requires a thorough covering of the animal's body. Usually one treatment with any of the recommended materials except rotenone will give good control. However, sometimes a second
